

MORE MYSTERY IN THE VALLEY

Barbara Corrado Pope

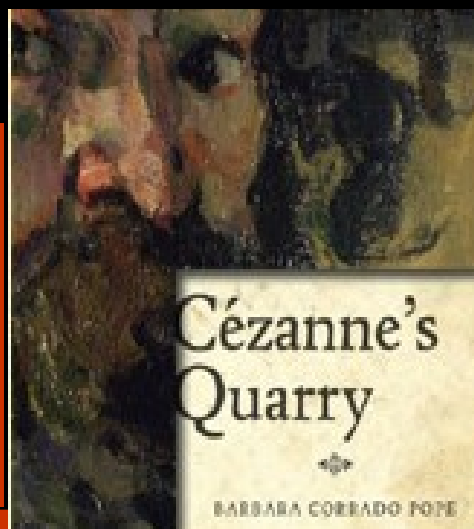

Friday Sept 14 at 6p
Bookwagon Ashland St

Pope sets this history-mystery at that most explosive of times, France in 1894, just before the trial of Captain Alfred Dreyfus on suspicion of sharing French military secrets with the Germans. Her entry point for examining the anti-Semitism of the time is one murder case and one magistrate in the town of Nancy, long a haven for French Jews. -Booklist

Recommended for historical mystery enthusiasts, especially those interested in French and Jewish history.
-- Library Journal

Co-Sponsored by Ashland Mystery, Friends of the Ashland Public Library, Bookwagon New & Used Books, Standing Stone Brewing Company. For more information call 541-552-0743.

Books at Bookwagon on Ashland Street call 541-448-4477